We are incredibly honored you've chosen to share your time with us to celebrate the 22nd annual New Morning Spring Auction. We have a delightful evening planned including live and silent auctions, raffle, wine grab, music, and mouthwatering food and drink. The monies raised at the auction help fund improvements to our classrooms and playgrounds, as well as provide scholarships for families in need of assistance. Every child will benefit from the funds we raise at this event. Thank you for supporting our wonderful community.

In this booklet, you will find a complete list of auction items followed by the charitable businesses and individuals who have donated them. When you have a moment, please let the donor families and auction volunteers know you appreciate their contributions. When you patronize the generous businesses that have donated to our event, please take the time to thank them for their support of New Morning and its vision.

Our incredible Auction Committee has been planning and organizing for months in no small part due to the helping hands of our entire community. Together, we've volunteered time, talents, ideas, feedback, and support. We especially want to thank Sarah Sherman for her expert assistance with event logistics, food, and beverage. Three cheers to Ashley Pyne and Marianne Novella for their thoughtful diligence in soliciting donations. Artsy applause to Keri Schlecht and Katy Clark for their time and energy in designing the auction assets including invitations, booklet, and event signage.

Our event would not be the same without (New Morning parent!) Jonathan Suttin of 105.5 Triple M, our gracious live auction host for another year.

We would like to extend our profound gratitude to our incredible teachers for all of the time and effort they put into creating one-of-a-kind classroom art, along with their individual contributions to the auction: Rebecca Anderson-Brown, Brooke Downing, Cheryl Forcier, Jen Granetzke, Suzanne Lee, Sarah Sparks, Jamie Swenson, Rae Reeson, and Nicole Wier.

We want to wholeheartedly thank our amazing director, April Denton, for her continued support and guidance through the years. On behalf of the New Morning community, thank you for all you do for our school and ultimately our children's lives, April!

Whether you donated, helped secure auction items, purchased tickets, bid on items, or volunteered – thank you for making this event happen. We hope you enjoy the evening.

The Silent Auction will begin at 6:30 PM on Saturday, March 16. The first section of silent auction items will close at 8:15 PM. The second section of silent auction items will close at 8:45 PM. The Madison Boats Membership Raffle will take place following the silent auction and lead into the live auction, announced by Jonathan Suttin of 105.5 Triple M. The fun doesn't stop when the live auction ends. We hope you'll stick around to socialize and enjoy special desserts courtesy of Craig's Cake Shop.

Your bid number for the event is located on the cover of this booklet. Each item listed in the booklet has a coordinating bid sheet that will be located near the item display. To bid on an item, write your bid number on the bid sheet. Bid increments must be in whole dollars.

We will be offering the Wine Grab feature again this year. Concealed Grab Bags will be available for purchase ($50) the night of the auction on a first-come, first-serve basis. Bags include a bottle of red or white wine AND a gift card to a local restaurant or winery. However, for one lucky winner a bag will contain a $50 bottle of wine AND a $50 restaurant gift card.

Once again we will offer the Bid Now, Pay Later payment option. Current New Morning families can collect winnings at auction's end and Pay Later by check by way of locker mail tube receipt. Checks will be accepted at the close of auction. We are unable to accept credit card payment at this time. We apologize for any inconvenience.

If you are unable to attend our auction, you may still bid on items. Please contact April Denton to assign a proxy bidder. Whether or not you attend the auction, we gladly accept donations in support of our Future Fund. All donations to New Morning are tax-deductible.

Thank you for joining us for a night of fun and fundraising in support of our wonderful school.
